

Misha Lenn

Misha Lenn is an internationally acclaimed award-winning artist whose works combine elegant brush strokes with vibrant watercolors.

Inspired by Klimt, Renoir and Degas, one can see their impressionist influence in his work. The fact that Misha is also a jazz musician adds to the energetic, lyrical quality of his watercolors. He has had numerous solo exhibitions and his artwork can be found in private and museum collections in the United States, Russia, Canada, France, Germany, Monaco, Sweden, Spain and Israel. He has been teaching fashion illustration for six years at Boston's Lasell College. Misha's prestigious list of clients includes The New York Times, Time Magazine, DKNY, Calvin Klein, Harvard University, Boston Ballet and The Boston Public Library. His most recent project is the exterior frieze of Marathon Place, a luxury condominium on Boylston Street.
